Navy Lad Confesses Part in Killing of Clara Stone in Maryland
HELD CHILD FOR RANSOM

By Associated Press
Norfolk, Va., Sept. 8.—Admission that he was the companion, at the time, of the man who killed six-year-old Clara Stone, near Orangeburg, Md., last February and was a party to the child's kidnapping, was made today by Norman George Bennett, of Baltimore, a naval cadet stationed at the Hampton Roads Training Station, in a statement taken by Captain R. E. Johnson, commandant Bennett, who is sixteen years old, enlisted in the navy recently at Baltimore. He is being held in custody for Maryland authorities.

The Stone child disappeared on February 21, after she had left home for school. Bennett declared in his statement this his companion, whom he described as "Red," kidnaped the girl, and when no ransom was paid, killed her. His statement was given out by the naval authorities follows:
"About one year ago I helped to commit a crime near Baltimore, in Duncan Woods, near Orangeburg, Md. I do not know the name of the man who went with me. I always called him 'Red.' He was about thirty-two years old and five feet tall. We saw a girl, Clara Stone, coming down the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks, near Duncan Woods, going to school. We kidnaped her and held her for ransom for two days. We did not get any ransom so 'Red' shot her with a pistol. We then covered the body with leaves and left for Baltimore.

"We separated after arriving in Baltimore. I do not know 'Red's' whereabouts nor where he lives. The best I know is to find him around the moving pictures on Broadway. Clara Stone lived at Orangeburg, Md. 'Red' and I were in the crowd at the funeral when she was buried in a plot. My body was found in Duncan Woods."
"My correct age is sixteen years. I gave my age as eighteen in order to get in the navy. My next of kin is my mother, Mrs. Mary Bennett, 2908 North Register street, Baltimore, Md. "NORMAN GEORGE BENNETT."
"Subscribed to by Lieutenant L. L. Hunter, U. S. N."

BODY OF "FLYING PARSON" SENT TO CAROLINA HOME

Examination of Wrecked Machine Throws No Light on Accident

Rutland, Vt., Sept. 8.—(By A. P.)—The body of Lieutenant Bevin W. Maynard, "flying parson," who was killed with two companions, Lieutenant R. B. Wood, of Rutland, N. Y., and Mechanic Charles Mionette, of Plattsburg, N. Y., when their plane fell 3000 feet here yesterday, was home-ward bound today for the State of New York. Preparations had been made for forwarding the bodies of Wood and Mionette to their homes.
An examination of the wrecked machine threw little light on the cause of the accident. The three aviators had been engaged in flights all the week from the Fair Grounds here.
Before leaving the ground early in the afternoon, Lieutenant Maynard as usual was careful to see that his plane was in good working order. He had put it through several stunts when it went into a nose dive and crashed to the ground.
The Fair Grounds crowd was given another shock when the plane, after the accident, Henry A. Simons, of Boston, was killed in a parachute drop from a balloon.
Lieutenant Maynard was to have preached in the Rutland Baptist Church last night. The topic of his sermon was "Death."

TIERNANS WILL NOT PART BEFORE PATERNITY TRIAL

Professor Demands Quick Hearing for Alleged Father of Wife's Baby

South Bend, Ind., Sept. 8.—The Tiernans will not separate, at least not until the courts have disposed of the charge that Harry Poulin, clothing merchant, is the father of Mrs. Tiernan's baby. It was made known at the Tiernan home here yesterday.
John P. Tiernan, professor of law at the University of Notre Dame, and his wife, Augusta, apparently are happy in their devotion to the three children, including the baby.
Prof. Tiernan says he will assume personal charge of the prosecution, and will oppose any efforts for further postponement of the preliminary hearing set for September 14. Prosecuting Attorney Jellison and the professor are sifting the evidence to be presented.
Mrs. Tiernan reiterated yesterday that she will not enter a story of her alleged relations with Mr. Poulin on the witness stand. Poulin maintains silence.

The bandits escaped in an automobile. Kunster was taken to a hospital where it was said he had been severely beaten.

Birmingham, Sept. 8.—At a meeting of 300 delegates, the Republican State Convention yesterday nominated O. D. Street, of Guntersville, for Governor. Mr. Street has been National Committeeman for Alabama.

FROM UNEXPECTED PLACES

It would seem as if there were no place so remote, too difficult of access, or so inhospitable, that a kidnapper would not find a way to reach it. The case of the Stone child is a case in point. The kidnappers were found in the most unexpected places.
